

Child Custody

- Child custody laws protect the breastfeeding/bodyfeeding relationship between parent and child for at least two years of life or until agreed upon by the breastfeeding/bodyfeeding parent
 - All judicial, court, and Friend of the Court personnel are educated to prioritize protection of the breastfeeding/bodyfeeding relationship
- Friend of the Court provides both the breastfeeding/bodyfeeding and non breastfeeding/bodyfeeding parent with evidence-based breastfeeding/bodyfeeding resources and referrals to skilled lactation support
- Materials on breastfeeding/bodyfeeding along with community resources are readily available to families
- Children are welcome at proceedings to ensure that breastfeeding/bodyfeeding is not interrupted

Tools to support these priorities are available for download at www.mibreastfeeding.org/tools.
