

STATE AND LOCAL HAPPENINGS

MIBFN UPDATES:

MIBFN is currently recruiting board members and seeking individuals from a wide range of lived experiences, including: people <25 years old, residents of Northern Michigan and the UP, LGBTQIA2S+ individuals, and more. To ensure we are addressing the needs and barriers faced by all populations across Michigan, we are committed to bringing more voices to the table.

MIBFN is working toward ensuring there are community-rooted, sustainable organizations in every geographic and identity community across Michigan. As our work grows, community-based efforts are growing too. MIBFN offers:

FISCAL
SPONSORSHIP

EVALUATION

PROJECT
MANAGEMENT

GRANT
WRITING

CONTINUING EDUCATION SERVICES

MIBFN is launching our 2025 Spring Giving Campaign. The theme is "Community Leads the Way," which highlights the importance of community in the face of uncertainty and the support that community gives to educate, uplift, and support human-milk feeding families.

GIVE TODAY

QUESTIONS? GET IN TOUCH WITH US: HELLO@MIBREASTFEEDING.ORG.

LOCAL BREASTFEEDING SUPPORTER UPDATES:

SEMI is working with MDOC and can soon start serving incarcerated individuals at Huron Valley Women's Prison

Milk Like Mine is gearing up for upcoming 2025 events, launching Milk Like Mine Productions, and restructuring their service model

Sacred Waters has been providing doula trainings across Michigan with plans for more, including one specifically for LGBTQIA2S+ folx

Lakeshore Breastfeeding Coalition is launching a sticker campaign to promote breastfeeding-friendly businesses and MI SB 351

Breastfeeding Advocates of Ottawa County is completing a Lactation Community Needs Assessment and re-establishing business sticker campaign

Skills Fair and Lactation Master Class for doulas in Grand Rapids is happening in April 2025

Mother's Milk for Michigan Infants provides FREE lactation support the first 2 weeks postpartum in West Michigan

MIBFN

Michigan Breastfeeding Network

THIS REPORT WAS GENERATED FROM DISCUSSION AT THE MARCH 20, 2025 LOCAL BREASTFEEDING SUPPORTER MEETING. TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THESE MEETINGS, VISIT MIBREASTFEEDING.ORG/LOCAL-MEETINGS.