WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

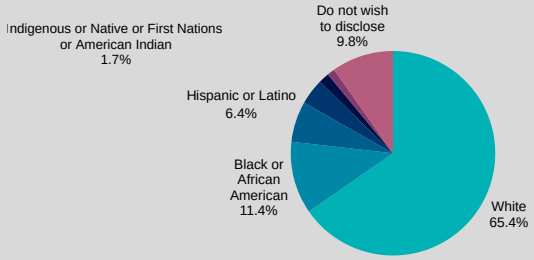

"It was healing for me as a hospital-based healthcare worker to spend time thinking about and reclaiming the ceremonial and spiritual aspects of labor and birth."

"I learned about the importance of traditional practices in birth work and inviting clients to explore their roots as they welcome their little ones into the world."

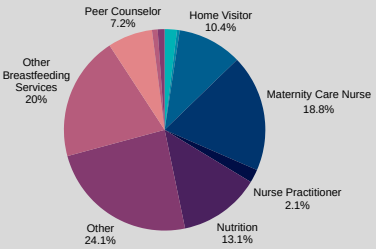

"I realized birth isn't just a medical event; it's a ceremony. Reclaiming that changes everything about how we should be supporting families."
